

For Now and Forever Wedding Invitations, 2424 North 63rd Street, Wauwatosa, 53213 414-202-6099

The following information is needed to arrange the wording of your invitation. If you do not have all of the information at this time, do not be concerned as the details will fall into place as we work together and your day approaches.

Please note that typical appointments last about 2 hours; first hour for selecting the invitation and the second hour to arrange your personalized wording and details. It is important to bring with you to this appointment, those that would like to have a say in the selection of the invitations. After selecting the invitation, a $100 cash deposit will be required. We will then proceed with the wording of the invitation. The deposit is applied to your balance and a receipt will be given.

Please discuss if one or both sets of parents will be placed on the invitation. If so please ask how they would like their names to appear on the invitations (i.e., father's name as Joe or Joseph, etc.).

Please consider thank you cards, table cards, programs, menus and napkins. All of these additional accessories are available. Programs are typically ordered separately and approximately two months before the wedding day.

Thank you and I look forward to working with you!
